Growing bold as the days get old
A girl of five sets the room alive
Says I'm nearly six, still up to her old tricks

With her contagious cheeky smile
And her quirky little style
She chats to everyone she meets
Even without shoes on her feet

Charlotte's back in town
Charlotte's back in town
Nobody has a frown
When Charlotte's back in town

Dress her in ribbons, a pretty skirt
Look at her rolling around in the dirt
Say anything you like and it never hurts

Cruisin' without a care every day
Full of beans and an eye for play
This girl's so unique
She'll have you laughing every time that she speaks

Charlotte's back in town
Charlotte's back in town
Nobody has a frown
When Charlotte's back in town

Charlotte's back in town
Charlotte's back in town
Nobody has a frown
When Charlotte's back in town

When Charlotte's back in town
