"Knowing You"

I didn't know you, not one little bit, no no no
I took one look at you and I knew that we would click
What was it that caught my eye?
Are you just a really nice guy?
Stayed there to be your friend
But you thought we'd be together 'til the end

And I didn't want to be that way, no no no woah
Oh, you don't listen to what I say

Talking on the phone 'til very very late
You were always trying to get me to go out on a date
Come on now, you're just a new guy
Couldn't tell if this was a lie
Trying to keep my mind off things
But you wouldn't give up, you just kept trying

I didn't want to be that way, no no no woah
Oh, you don't listen to what I say
And now I wake up in the middle of the night and I think about you
I wake up in the middle of the night and I think about you
I think about you, I think about you

You are an amazing person and I love you as a friend
I realize my luck to have you ring at 3am
You're my last thought every evening, my first when I'm awake
I keep checking my phone for messages, well there must be some mistake

Now I'm trying to get over you, erasing you from my mind
Could it be after all that you're my type of guy, is that what I find?
Girl you're gonna have to be strong
Pull through, let nothing go wrong
No love and there never was
There's something wrong with my heart and its aching because

I didn't want to be that way, no no no woah
Oh, you don't listen to what I say
Because I wake up in the middle of the night and I think about you
I wake up in the middle of the night and I think about you
I wake up in the middle of the night and I think about you
I think about you, I think about you
Hey yeah, I think about you
I think about you, hey yeah, I think about you
I think about you, baby
