How could you think that you
Could treat me that way
Telling me on the phone
That things will be OK
Even though you never made
Time to spend with me
I still believed every word
That you said would be

I was led on, left out in the cold
I was led on, thinking everything was OK
Led on by your every word
Don't ever say that we could be
Cause you don't know me

Times have changed since the day
That you and me were one
Looking now where I am
And how I feel so strong
Thinking that I needed you
And that we had just begun
Now I feel you should know
That you and I are done

I was led on, left out in the cold
I was led on, thinking everything was OK
Led on by your every word
Don't ever say that we could be

We are strong, we are brave
We will fight every day
Nothing can stop us now
Nothing will bring us down

I was led on, left out in the cold
I was led on, thinking everything was OK
Led on by your every word
Don't ever say that we could be

Cause you don't know me
