She held her breath, praying for happiness
The world had turned to dust behind her
She closed her eyes, wished for a surprise
For something to come and save her

I don't know why this had to happen today
She suffers through so much, it's always this way
Why does this happen and there's nothing to say?

It's time to breathe, close the blinds and complete
The job set out to do
Help them see what they are meant to be
And how their lives can be saved

I don't know why this had to happen today
She suffers through so much, it's always this way
Why does this happen and there's nothing to say?

I don't know why you had to go and cry
Can I come and help to save you?

I don't know why this had to happen today
She suffers through so much, it's always this way
Why does this happen and there's nothing to say?
