Dreams are nothing more than wishes
And a wish is just a dream wished to come true

If only I could have a puppy
I'd call myself so very lucky
Just to have some company
To share a cup of tea with me
I'd take my puppy everywhere
La da da da da, I wouldn't care
We would stay away from crowds
And signs that said no dogs allowed
Oh we, I know he'd never bite me, whao no
We, I know he'd never bite me, whoa no

If only I could have a friend
Who'll stick with me until the end
To walk along beside the sea
And share a bit of moon with me
I'd take my friend most everywhere
La da da da da, I wouldn't care
We would stay away from crowds
And signs that said no friends allowed
I know we...we'd be so happy to be...
We...we'd be so happy to be together

But dreams are nothing more than wishes
And a wish is just a dream you wish to come true
(Your wish will come true, your wish will come true)
Who oh oh, whoa whoa whoa
Dreams are nothing more than wishes
And a wish is just a dream you wish to come true
(Your wish will come true, your wish will come true)
Dreams are nothing more than wishes
And a wish is just a dream you wish to come true
(Your wish will come true, your wish will come true)
