One stolen breath within the city falls
Inhale the future you could have it all
It's such a nuclear waste but it sees me through
Don't follow me 'cause I'm lost too

These words I scream in silence
I don't fit this shoe
With a passion building up inside the bite
I could not chew

It's always something for nothing
It's always something for nothing

I've got a high rise block inside my head
I hate to state the obvious but nothing said
Pollute your lungs and your mind will follow
Time decays until it's over

These words I scream in silence
I don't fit this shoe
With a passion building up inside the bite
I could not chew

It's always something for nothing
It's always something for nothing
It's always something for nothing

Intoxicated sanity
The fabric of society
I need someone to stand by me

What's done is done
Just let me breathe
(Let me breathe)

Let me breathe
Let me breathe

Let me breathe
Let me breathe

Let me breathe

Let me breathe

These words I scream in silence
With a passion building up inside
