Trick Daddy: Verse 3

Sweetie u look so incredible, so delicious, so damn edible
all we need is sum honey or syrup with a little butter to rub all down yer curves, theres no need for the lemonade, just a twist of lime, n some great kool-aid, can i call u caramel? cuz im bout to go coo-coo n taste ur cocoa puffs, one bowl outta fill ya up, but the milk might not be cold enough, so suppa time might hold ya up, it might choke ya up, it might slow ya up but honey u look like a honey with the strawberries n the whipped cream fill it up, tough call for the peach cobbler, but a fruit platter outta do me better

Chorus: (2 times)

She put that sugar on my tongue she's gunna give me give me some she put it right there on my tongue shes so sweet, no other, shes turns me on, like no other
