Why do you talk so much?
Why don't you just shut up and listen?
You can try to block me out, but I'm not going nowhere

You can't even think of my name
Even though I've known you since the first grade
And you never look back, it's cause you really haven't changed

You used to say when it got cold
That my eyes would be the same when I'd get old
And after everything I'm told I know that Love can grab ahold and spit your soul to the end of the road

Won't you turn back to me
So you can prove to me what I believe
Please don't take this the wrong way
But I couldn't care about you less
You used to say when it got cold
That my eyes would be the same when I'd get old
And after everything I'm told I know that Love can grab ahold and spit your soul to the end of

One day, you'll want to let me be so
But you gotta take your foot off my door
And I know, you'll want me to be alone
When I can't seem to hold my own

(repeat)

You used to say when it got cold
That my eyes would be the same when I'd get old
And after everything I'm told I know that Love can grab ahold and spit your soul to the end of
