Someone once told me so very long ago,
That this world was coming to an end
As much as I tried to see,
My mind just could not apprehend

Chorus:
As I look deep in your eyes,
I can see you crying
Staring at the stars,
I feel like dying
You say, "Don't give up on me now"
We've gone way too far,
To throw our chances to be found
Don't give into the devil's sound

I have no idea where we are,
The world still ripping apart
This is not the end, no
Just take my hand
And we'll go back to the start

*chorus*

Everything's falling
This can not be the end
My destiny's calling
I'm not ready to go, my friend
It's over now
We've met our maker
I can't believe it's all gone now
But promise me, that you won't take her

*Chorus*

You say don't give up on me now,
We've gone way too far
To throw our chances to be found

Don't give into the devil's sound (x3)
