I've been away
Been away too long
Com inside
Get inside my mind
Don't just call me mad
Shouts in my head are louder than the storms at sea

I hear the sea called out my name
Is it me the torture in my head?
I want my baby, Emily

Emily, daddy's at home
Home is in your heart
So don't make it cold
For daddy, Emily

I can't remember who I really am
Can I please find me again?
In this prison now I say these words
But my prison is reality, it's me

And all I find
All I find in money is a lie
Their lies to me
Emily just want my love

Emily, daddy's at home
Home is in your heart
So don't make it cold
For daddy, Emily
