"The Beginning...At Last"

Have all you are and all you're to be
Fade in your world and all that you see
This hole in the wall, is under your thumb
Dulling your senses 'til you become

'Til you become, oh yeah
I gotta run, 'cause I've been Caught in a world, caught in a world where
You could never run too fast
To finally reach, the beginning at last

Dismantling comfort of those you surround
Place joy upon strangers, ain't that profound
This hole in the wall is under your thumb
Dulling your senses, 'til you become

'Til you become, oh yeah
I gotta run, oh, I just got to run
Caught in a world where
You could never run too fast
To finally reach the beginning at last

Where you going, going?
Never knowing, knowing
Just who and where, where
You gotta turn, turn

Forever caring, forever sharing
You never learn, learn
Lifetime of getting burned, burned, oh
