Chorus:

Look on to tomorrow

It's another day

To hope, to dream

To love, to play

Bad times and good times

Will always pass

But there's always another

Standing in your path

There is a horizon

And it's called elusive

but it can be reached

If you set your heart to it

Everyone has bad times

And everyone has good

Your friends saw you through it

Anyway they could

(Chorus, keyboard break, chorus)

There is a tomorrow

And it's called elusive

But it can be reached

If you set your heart to it

Don't let a bad time

Stop you in the road of life

Tomorrow is coming

Look on without strife

(Chorus)

Standing on your path
