It's making me nervous how every day feels the same
Meet my phantoms, they never seem to want to go away
So they stay

I found a good place for everyone I know to come and rest
All I ever wanted is for everyone I know to come and rest
Meet my Phantoms
Meet my Phantoms
Meet my Phantoms
Meet my Phantoms

How's your body, how clean is your soul?
Why are you trying to steal my thoughts before they fly
Fall right in, let's talk, Maurice
If everything's fine, then why are you waiting for him?
How's your body, how clean is your soul?
Why are you trying to steal my thoughts before they talk
Fall right in, let's talk Maurice
If everything's fine, then what are you waiting for?
Kid, where's your pride?
Use your time, sure it's more than love and goals, and love and goals both use your pride, use your time
Waste of life, feel the music change your mind
Where's your body, where's your soul?
Waste of life, feel the music change your mind
Where's your body, where's your soul?
Sure it's more than love and goals, and love and goals both...

(Since they try to lie, I said it's the truth
The monsters that walk among us..
X marks the trouble, X marks the trouble
This is me trying to get away
The monsters walk, it's brilliant
Just 2 eyes and you believe them
Don't try to lie, don't try to lie
I said it's the truth

X marks the trouble...)

Kid, where's your pride?

Use your time, sure it's more than love and goals, and love and goals both

Use your pride, use your time

Wasted life, feel the music change your mind

Where's your body, where's your soul

Wasted life, feel the music change your mind...
