With open arms I'll be held down by the Spirit of God
I refuse to turn away by the world and its lies Everlasting words like water that flows through my heart
As the wisdom runs deep within

Foreseen through my savior
The completion has been done
With wisdom and truth inside
No reflections from the past will come

And there will be no misconception
That would turn my faith away when you are with me

I will lift up my spirit to be with you
Life the endless maze will not be so narrow
Soon time, time will come I won't have to wait
For soon I will go against what awaits me

With open arms I'll be held down by the Spirit of God
I refuse to turn away by the world and its lies
Everlasting words like water that flows through my heart
As the wisdom runs deep within

Foreseen through my savior
The completion has been done
With wisdom

Foreseen through my savior
The completion has been done
With wisdom and truth inside
No reflections from the past will come

And there will be no misconception
That would turn my faith away when you are with me

I will lift my spirit
I will lift my spirit
I will lift my spirit
