It blinds my eyes to see you
It bleeds my hands to touch your face
It burns my ears to hear you
It mutes my tongue to say your name

It blinds my eyes to see you
It bleeds my hands to touch your face
It burns my ears to hear you

Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart

Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart
Pulling out arrows from my calloused heart

Pull out the arrows throughout my heart
Pull out the arrows throughout my heart
Pull out the arrows throughout my heart
Pull out the arrows throughout my heart

It blinds my eyes to see you
It bleeds my hands to touch your face
It burns my ears to hear you
It mutes my tongue to say your name

It blinds my eyes to see you
It bleeds my hands to touch your face
It burns my ears to hear you
