"To Think Of You Is To Treasure An Absent Memory"

When you shut your eyes and fell asleep
Dark clouds descended on the souls of the ones
Who held you close to their hearts, close to their hearts

My heart broke
My heart broke
My heart broke
Open
Open
Open

The beauty of an embrace a place
To lay down the pain
Where blood and fire bring rest and peace
Where blood and fire bring rest and peace
Where blood and fire bring rest and peace
Where blood and fire bring rest and peace

I sit away in a secret place, the shadow of wings
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
I think of you
And my heart breaks open
