That night I was walking and walking
I found myself in an open square at two
The square was dirty, full of garbage
Paper plastic tin cans
There were people sleeping on the benches
With blankets made of cardboard

I wasn't comfortable
And I judged instantly what I saw
Stinking filth contempt

One of them smiles at me and says
"Hey, don't go losing your today
Hiding your soul in your solitude"
I've skipped from society
And a token that keeps us true

Keeps us true
Keeps us true
Keeps us true
Keeps us true
Keeps us true

"Your face is my life", he says
And the day shines better for the view
The birds talk amongst themselves
And their words tell tales of you

Tales of you
Tales of you
Tales of you
Tales of you
Tales of you

We are the winners
If we uncloze our eyes
The ceiling's not what it seems
The healing waits in our skies
Wait in our sky
Wait in our sky

Hey there

Before you walk away
Show me the smile that says
"I'm not alone"

You see what you want in me
Because this crazy life
This crazy life
This crazy life is my home

We are the winners
If we uncloze our eyes
The ceiling's not what it seems
The healing waits in our sky
Wait in our sky

Hey there
Before you walk away
Show me the smile that says
"I'm not alone"

Oh, you see
What you want in me
This crazy life

We are the winners
If we uncloze our eyes
Waits in our sky
