It's a lonely life I live and I live this life to go and if I leave you with one thing it's just that I want you to know

I'll still be loving you tonight.

I left flowers on your table, left the lock on your door.

Staked a claim in your heartlands, put grain in your store.

I'll still be loving you tonight.

Got fingers on the button of that telephone dial.

Call in and move your mountains, fill your spaces while
I'm still loving you tonight.

You want to know how I can leave you?

How I can move along this way?

Too much of a good thing can make you crazy and it's a good thing that happened to me today.

I'll still be loving you tonight
