"Sunshine Day"

Woke up this morning to look at things in their funny way.
Why can't they be like they used to be only yesterday?
Ooh, bring back my sunshine day.

I look at things that once were mine with such despair.
Why do the things I say only fall on empty air?
Ooh, bring back my sunshine day.

My mind cried, "Bring back my sunshine day."

I say the things I used to say, but they don't seem right.
Why does this world seem like the darkest endless night?
Ooh, bring back my sunshine day.
Bring back my sunshine day
