Cheese: The first thing that attracted me to the Mothers music
Was the fact that they played for twenty minutes Everybody was hissing, and booing, and falling of the dance floor
And Elmer was yelling at them to get Off the stage and turn down they're amplifiers

FZ: Ah! I know perfect thing to accompany this man's trumpet,
None other than the mighty majestic Albert Hall pipe organ
You understand that you won't be able to hear the organ once we turn the amplifiers up.
All right Don wip it on them
Louie Louie
They like it loud, do you know?
Let's hear again to the London Philharmonic Orchestra
