While we're at it, we have a sort of a cowboy song we'd like to do for ya. This is a song that deals with the rapidly approaching 200th birthday of the united states of america, ladies and gentlemen. This is a song that warns you in advance, that next year, everybody is gonna try and sell you things that maybe you shouldn't ought to buy,
and not only that, they've been planning it for years.
The name of this song is (pardon me), Poofsters Froth, Wyoming, Plans Ahead.

Poofsters Froth, Wyoming, March Eleven Sixty-Seven
Take a letter, Miss Abetter as our pigeons will be homin'.

To our jobbers in Dakota
And to Merwyn, Minnesota
This is merely just a note about Performance to our quota

Well, we've all come out to show dem,
And the Elks have helped us Load 'em
Little packets full of jackets
Little rackets, little rackets

Little Poofster-Cloth Appointments
Little Pofter's Froth Anointments Little hoods, little goods Little doo-dads from the woods

The entire stock is shipping Oh our shod is hardly slipping
To the markets of the world
Our wrinkled pennants are unfurled!

T-shirt racks, rubber snacks,
Poster rolls with matching tacks
Yes, a special beer for sports (and aper cups that hold two quarts)

Everything a nation needs
For making hoopla while it feeds
The trash compactos, small reactors, Mowers, blowers, throwers & the glowers:

This is Buy-Cent-Any-All Salute(HYULK!)
Two hundred years have gone ka-poot!
Ah but we have been astute!
Signed: Anon. - Wyo. Galoot
