Listen carefully, spider of destiny
You must heed the call of cosmo-biology Listen to me

If you eat the earthlings now things will all be fine and then we'll repair our love somehow and resume the busy schedule of our ruthless conquest once again

Listen carefully, spider of destiny
I will not allow this marvelous opportunity to be taken from me
Taken from me...

Eat the earth people, eat them and chew them and brutally stomp on the rest of what's left and then report to me for the conquest of earth and the moon and the stars and the space in between, all the comets and stars will be ours

stomp on the rest of what's left...
