"Shining Sun"

Does everybody see this?
We got another hopeless soul
You caught your woman cheating
Kicked the whore out the door

Puking in the backseat
Swallowing the pain
Cough a lung up in the morning
Flush your money down the drain

But the sun is always shining
So how can you complain
Hate to see you grieving so I'm leaving
I'll be seeing you again

They are the homeless stinking
Just about everywhere you go
And all the addicts weeping
"I cant afford my crystal meth"

Ethnic kid shot dead by a cop by mistake
Or my cousin in pomona who's totally insane
Gonna end up as a donor a cadaver on a plate
But thhe sun is always shining
So how can you complain
Hate to see you grieving so I'm leaving
I'll be seeing you again
