Angela, your smile seems to bright today
And your eyes-big, brown, and glassy, far away
Angela, it's hard to hold it all inside
Angela, don't cry

Angela, your square jawed words sound sure and strong
And your voice has practiced fighting for so long
Angela, it's hard when what seems right it wrong
Angela

Angela, are you absolutely sure about your test results?
Yeah, I guess I could see how this is all his fault
Wait-what the hell?
You took him out?
Oh, Angela, Angela

Angela, I'll miss you
I hope you make it through all that you'll have to do
I had such hopes for you
Angela, how could you?

It's easy now to get a gun
They hand them out to anyone
Didn't think about it
Didn't think until I'd seen what I done

Angel A
Angel A
Angel A
You always said you were heaven sent this way
