A fifty says it'll beat you
Out from underneath you
It's taking everything that you've worked for
And you know it

I see you around downtown
It never leaves you
Purchase or a trade-you're getting deeper
And if you can pull yourself out of this one-wow, Shelly
Shelly

I know that you say it never gets you down, Shelly
Shelly
And that you know it would never push you round,
Shelly Shelly
You think that you can maintain this lifestyle now,
Shelly Shelly?
Well I've got news for you girl-you look like hell, Shelly
Shelly

Feeling souped on dope-sppon in your hand
Staring at the sea, staring at the sand
And I will never know how it came to this, Shelly Shelly
Well I may seem uptight to you, but I'm right
Because the shell of pathetic you speaks loud, Shelly
Shelly

I know that you say it never gets you down, Shelly
Shelly
And that you know it would never push you round,
Shelly Shelly
You think that you can maintain this lifestyle now,
Shelly Shelly?
Well I've got news for you girl-you look like hell, Shelly
Shelly
