CONFUTATIS MALEDICTIS

CONFUTATIS MALEDICTIS

TRAGEDY STORMS HIM

WHEN DEMONS SPARE HER LIFE

AND ALL DISCOVER

SHE HAS A DEMONHEART... DEMONHEART!

Feeling trapped in with the slimy creatures,

now close to being killed

she soon revealed her forgotten, sad past first to herself

they smelled her flesh ready to be devoured but something happened

they moved away seeming to be frightened sparing her life

Shocked again she opened the gates of her tragic past and bloody images came back to her mind

She remembered the old mission the dark comet's goal beyond the suns

...the flight through

...that black hole

CONFUTATIS MALEDICTIS

AND ALL DISCOVER

SHE HAS A DEMONHEART... DEMONHEART!

She lived again in some frames of sorrow that evil journey planned by the Arias' exploring section to find new worlds

But all that they found beyond their system was the black portal depths of oblivion came back to their world once opened it

Arkan and the other warriors who observed the scene could not feel the same way now about that girl

He moved to her taking her hand running fast away from his old friends

...all for her... he loved her...
