You're a dream from which I hope to never wake
Such an impact in this world our love will make
Each time we kiss
The Earth is bathed in bliss

I don't eat or breathe, I live on pleasure now
Hope your light will show my way forever now
I can't sleep whether
We're alone or together

Our love is like the universe,
Expanding and infinite
Eternal and evolving
A thousand lifetimes could be spent exploring it

Though we have so little time to spend together
I know that each moment's going to last forever
Sometimes I miss you
Even while I'm still with you

I love everything that I've learned about you
I can't wait to learn the rest and know it's true
My life is growing
My world is glowing

Our love is like the universe
Expanding and infinite
Eternal and evolving
A thousand languid languages could not explain it.

Our love is like the universe
Expanding and infinite
Eternal and evolving
A thousand lifetimes could be spent exploring it
A thousand languid languages could not explain it.
