Sleepy angel
Let me be your pillow
When the day has hollowed you out
Like a cup

I'll be there to fill you up
Your body aches
Why do you stress yourself out?
Lay on me

We'll float like clouds
As all the stars above are shining
Keepsakes so far love
And now the winds we've wore are like

Listless on the floor
I wish I could take you away
From this world for a while
I wish we could all learn to live

Without fear or denial
I wish I could take you away from this world
When your dreams are scarier than you can handle
I will help you gently away

In the morning as you wipe the sleep from your eyes
I'll be there warmer than sunrise
To run my fingertips
Along your luscious lips

As our body flows
just like petals from a rose
I wish I could take you away
From this world for a while

I wish we could all learn to live
Without fear or denial
I wish I could take you away from this world
This world
