I like to pretend I'm travelling through time
With every moment ever on perpetual rewind
We can live together for forever in my mind
You send the signal from your fingers to my spine

Vibrations

Ooh, molecules are spinning the beginning of
Creation
Ooh, you set me free from reality

Vibrations

Vibrations

Oh, my sugar, I want to be your sweetness
You want your mighty, I want to be your weakness
The skies are gray, I want to be your pinkness
You send the trouble from my body and my consciousness

Vibrations

Ooh, molecules are spinning the beginning of
Creation
Ooh, you set me free from reality

Vibrations

Vibrations

Like a tunnel, like a troll, to the center of a particle
And half between a big bang and a black hole
I finally think myself in gravity's blue roll
To this thunder, I surrender my remote control

Vibrations

Ooh, molecules are spinning the beginning of
Creation
Ooh, you set me free from reality

Vibrations

Vibrations

Nothing but a series of electrical reactions and chemical impulses.

Nothing but a series of electrical reactions and
