when they stare out at the stars like satelllites- we'll always be there i am the sun- you are the moon we are the hope they'll always see there

(chorus)

it's true

i burn for you

this time each day

we meet this way to share the things we've got to say when they go to sleep at night like reveries we'll always be there our souls entwine and share the dream we both believe we can fly anywhere

(repeat chorus)

it's true

we sleep this way to share the things we've go to say
