They're sitting up in the board room
and you see it like a fly on the wall.
You can hear the man in the suit say
we don't have time to stall

We got deadlines to meet.
Oh We got deadlines to meet.

'Cause time equals money and money's alright
so I'll be working past nine and those fucking Europeans who vacation from September
they ain't in the right mind

We got deadlines to meet.
Oh We got deadlines to meet.

We need a fire
'cause fire fire
is something we love
We need the time to try try
'cause it's never enough.

We got deadlines to meet.
We got deadlines to meet.
Oh oh
We got deadlines to meet.
We got deadlines to meet.
