Slipped through the front door without a key It's always unlocked when you're waiting for me
And I have to wait 'til your roommates were sleeping
They give you a hard time that I was over

Your eyes light up, always the same
Just like I was taking you on a first date
But you have no reason for feeling this way

So don't let me be your guiding light
'Cause that was never my power
I'm not the sun, there's no guarantee
I burn out hard like a spark

So don't let me be your guiding light
'Cause I'll keep you lost in the dark
I'm not the sun, there's no guarantee
Cuz I burn out hard like a spark
Yeah, I burn out hard like a spark.
