[Foxy Brown]

Yes, dutty

It's ya girl Fox Brown and I'm comin' through ya town
Nah'mean, but for Luther I'mma keep this clean, yes
(oh)

[Verse One: Luther Vandross] {Foxy}

Could've died when I found out we couldn't live together peacefully {oh}
That's when it started and we nearly parted {uh huh}
Well I was hoping not to see that day
We started getting in each other's way {ohh}
Maybe it's better, we don't live together

Things got strange {uh huh}, my space to chill became half the size {yeah}

You became, someone I didn't even recognise {what}

[Chorus: Luther] {Foxy}

What's the matter now? {y'know}
What you talkin' bout?
If it ain't one thing, it's another {that's right}
If it ain't one thing, it's the other {whatever}
Why you gotta put me down?
What you complaining about?
If it ain't one thing, it's the other
If it ain't one thing, it's another {Dutty}

Oooh, ooh {what}. Oooh, oooh, ooh - I remember
{And I was like that when you left me}

[Verse Two: Luther] {Foxy}

I remember when, I got a yacht for a dinner cruise {oh}
The way you treated everyone was rude {uh huh}
And I don't believe ya, you're such a diva {that's right, haha}
I told the waitress we wanted wine {uh huh}
You got upset because the girl was fine {ohh}
You're complicated {y'know}, but somehow we make it

I get tired {uh huh}, from all I have to do to keep you

satisfied {woo}

Get no sleep {uh huh}, you call me in the middle of the night and weep

[Chorus: Luther] {Foxy}

What's the matter now? {what}

What you cryin' bout?

If it ain't one thing, it's another

If it ain't one thing, it's the other {that's right}

Why you gotta fuss and shout? {what?}

What you screaming about? {y'know}

If it ain't one thing, it's the other

If it ain't one thing, it's another

[Bridge: Luther] {Foxy}

I guess I can't see the wool through you're eyes {yes, uh}

(Pretty little brown eyes) {yes}

I guess I don't understand what goes on, goes on,
goes on {LV, baby!}

in your mind

[Foxy Brown]

Now Luther what you mean if it ain't one thing, then it's another

Look brother, we took a vow to cherish each other

And I, been through the storm

But you keep disrespecting and ignoring me

I swear, won't be long til I'm gone

But, ain't nothing worse than a black woman scorned

I move with integrity, it's hard being a celebrity

And loving you is like a Gift and a Curse

You ain't gotta think twice, 'cause I'm leaving you first (uh huh)

[Chorus: Luther]

What's the matter now (now)

What you talkin' bout?

If it ain't one thing, it's another

If it ain't one thing, it's the other

Why you gotta put me down (down)

What you fussing about?

If it ain't one thing, it's the other

If it ain't one thing, it's another

[Chorus: Luther] {Foxy}

What's the matter now (now)

What you talkin' bout?

If it ain't one thing, it's another

If it ain't one thing, it's the other

Hey girl, why you gotta scream and shout (shout)

What you complaining about?
If it ain't one thing, it's the other (shut up)
If it ain't one thing, it's another {Dutty, yes}

[Foxy]

I must admit that at times I talk slick
But I'm the woman of this house, my best defence is my mouth
And, I give you good love, I cook you dinner (uhh)
And like Halle and Denzel, your wife is a winner
So on, you chose your bed so sleep in it
I should've known from day one, but I was so deep in it, so
Since what I'm saying, is going in one ear and out the other brother
This ain't your house, get the hell out!
And leave the keys and the drop top Z behind
You can't diss me, then expect to keep what's mine
So keep thinking you can use and abuse me
While you realise you miss me, I'm gone, taking my ish with me
