Lyrics for Song: You'Re Only Losing Your Heart

Lyrics for Album:

[Buy " " CD]

Don't' do anything I wouldn't do
Pass me anyway, like I'm a fool for you
Passionate anyway
Walkin' out the back door
Used to be alive until just now
It's just becoming unreal

You're only losing your heart
It's nothing critical
You wont believe it till it starts
You're only losing your heart
It's not unusual
It's only tearing you apart

Don't' do anything I wouldn't do
Pass me anyway, lie like a fool

Laugh at me anyway
Walkin' out the back door
Used to be alive until just now
It's just becoming unreal

You're only losing your heart
It's nothing critical
You wont believe it till it starts
You're only losing your heart
It's not unusual
It's only tearing you apart

Oh, how can I be
So far away
Without a reason?
Should I know
How not to lose?
How can I not
Follow you anywhere?

But I'm lost
Take me away!

Takin' all my time, make me a choice

Passionate anyway
Walkin' out the back door
Used to be alive until just now
It's just becoming unreal

You're only losing your heart
It's nothing critical
You won't believe it till it starts
You're only losing your heart
You can't believe it to be
The thing that's tearing you apart
You're only losing your heart
It's nothing visual
You won't believe it till it starts
You're only losing your heart
The thing you're dreamin' of is
The thing that's tearing you apart

Even though I'm wasting my time
