You told me if I ever got down, you'd cool my frown
Baby, I'm down, so prove it!
Yeah!
My poor heart just cold as the lark
That fell in the middle of a big peat bog, so move it!
Yeah!
Now, what's this, babe?
Are you just gonna stand there?
And watch me pull my hair?
Well, you go on, get out of here 'Cause you ain't no friend of mine, no
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no

You ain't no friend of mine
You've been puttin' me on all this time
You ain't no friend of mine
You just want to stand and watch me
Watch me blow my mind

Sun comes up and the moon goes down,
I'm running wild, on the town,
Like a boozier, yeah!
Man on the sidewalk putting me down,
Says I look queer ,
Calls me a clown and a loser, yeah!

Now, what's this, babe?
Are you just gonna stand there?
Remember when I was pulling my hair?
Well, you go on, get out of here,
'Cause you ain't no, ain't no friend of mine, no
No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no

You ain't no friend of mine
You've been puttin' me on all this time
You ain't no friend of mine
You just want to stand and watch me
Watch me blow my mind
