I turn my head
I can't shake the look you gave
And I'm good as dead
Cause oh those eyes are all it takes
And all I want is you

So I pull away
All I do is sit and wait
And I might as well
Write the words right on my face
That all I want is you
Oh is you

Because I've kept my heart under control
But lately all this time has taken its toll
Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my soul
Oh, so darling please forgive me
I want you and you'll just have to know

And all my fears creep and crawl across my skin and These four walls are after me and moving in
And all, all that I want to do
Oh, is give up, give in, let this one stay where it is But I don't suppose I will

Because I've kept my heart under control
(All locked up and under control)
But lately all this time has taken its toll
(All this time has taken its toll)
Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my
soul
(Deep down in my soul)
Oh, so darling please forgive me
I want you and you'll just have to know

One of these days I'm gonna find myself a way
I'll find the courage and I'll find the grace
Oh, and I'm gonna know just what to say
Oh, and you'll walk on up when you want this love
Oh when you've had enough and you've given it up

Because I've kept my heart under control
(All locked up and under control)
But lately all this time has taken its toll
(All this time has taken its toll)
Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my
soul
(Deep down in my soul)
Oh, so darling please forgive me
I want you and you'll just have to know

I've kept my heart under control
(All locked up and under control)
I've kept my heart - oh it's under control baby

Lately all this time has taken its toll
(All this time has taken its toll)
Darlin don't you let it go

Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my
soul
(Deep down in my soul)
I said now deep down in my soul
It's deep down in my soul
Oh, I want you and you'll just have to know

I've kept my heart under control
(All locked up and under control)
It's under control

Lately all this time has taken its toll
(All this time has taken its toll)
Darlin' please don't let it go

Said I tried to but I can't hold back what's deep in my
soul
(Deep down in my soul)

Baby baby baby please baby girl
