Father Look, you haven't changed at all you are still as young as you were under your skin In your eyes I can see many things though you've aged you still have your dreams buried or not.

Haven't we talked enough, haven't you said to me, my girl don't be afraid and don't be ashamed to make your own world.

Where the lake parts to make way for rock well the waves they crash and they fall and turn back to water

You're the same and you should fear no man You should just look into your own hands and find your own strength

girl
own world.

own world.
