I thought of love
I thought of you
I thought how you tore my heart in two Now i think
Now i say
That i have such horrible days

I think that life
is hard and rough
it gives u a smack
it gives you a cuff
but no matter what you do you can't win
but now i get blown away in the wind

The things i hate
The things i love
the things i dictate and crumple up Why can't i end it now Why can't it be over
I guess sum ppl love me till the end

I think that life
is hard and rough
it gives u a smack
it gives you a cuff
but no matter what you do you can't win
but now i get blown away in the wind

Now think about love
now think about life
just hold on to ur strife
