I never want to be strangers again, she says
There are tears in her eyes
And later on when I'm all by myself,
There are tears in mine

We sell our love like it was fresh lemonade
We yell as cars go by
Run up to strangers and we tug at their coats
And plead with them to try

But you, you've taken all of my dreams
And melted them to stone
And you've skipped them across the water and they're gone
But you, you gave me nothing at all
But hope when I was weak
And now you're gone, I played along, and I'm alone

Growing up is just betraying ourselves
We do it all the time
A year ago I was in love with a girl,
Now she's gone I'm fine

Well here we are together
Well here's our favorite song
We talked about forever, yeah,
Well maybe that's too long

But you, you've taken all of my dreams
And melted them to stone
And you've skipped them across the water and they're
gone
But you, you gave me nothing at all
But hope when I was weak
And now you're gone, I played along, and I'm alone

And I'm alone, she left me
And I'm alone, tired and weak
And I'm alone, it's raining, and I'm wondering if I'm happy
Well I'm alone, talk to me please,

And I'm alone, breathe me in deep
And I'm alone, ask me to leave, let's go grab a beer or something
