Told myself I wouldn't say a word
Wouldn't lose my head over the things I'd heard
Take it like a man and get along
Make like I don't notice everything's gone wrong

And you, you're taking me for a spin
Tell me this is not about him
You lead me on a bit too long
But someday I'll be gone for good again

Nothing I can do to make you feel
Lips are getting colder every kiss I steal
Used to be I fit you like a glove
But I don't want your body if he's got your love

And you, you're taking me for a spin
Tell me this is not about him
You lead me on a bit too long
But someday I'll be gone for good again

Everything is telling me to run
Get myself a ticket, let you come undone
Blood like Mississippi in my veins
Both sides overflowing and it looks like rain

And you, you're taking me for a spin
Tell me this is not about him
You lead me on a bit too long
But someday I'll be gone for good again
