Your always on my mind
I don't know what to do
But sit here and wish I was with you

Since you've been gone I've been missing
Pieces to the puzzle of my life
I'm as cold as ice
You shattered the pieces of my life

You left me here alone
I feel like a rolling stone
Tore apart I feel no one
I'm leaving this home

Since you've been gone I've been missing
Pieces to the puzzle of my life
I'm as cold as ice
You shattered the pieces of my life

Pieces scattered everywhere
Cause you've shattered me like you didn't care
We were putting pieces together
And now your gone letting the pieces fall

Your always on my mind
I don't know what to do
But sit here and wish I was with you

You used to be so kind
Used to be on my mind
Now you're gone with the wind
Leaving pieces on the floor
