I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like You
A minute goes by
Just an notion of you
I still get down
And that's really true
How long have I searched for someone like You

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like You
A minute goes by
Just an notion of you
I still get down
And that's really true

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like You
A minute goes by
Just an notion of you
I still get down
And that's really true

All right. Now listen!
Ladies and gentlemen!
Here it comes.
Special D.
Oh my god.

You

You're the only one i need
You're my angel your my love
You're the air I need to breathe
You're my ever shining star
I love you
All I think about is you.

I used to feel blue

My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like You
A minute goes by
Just an notion of you
I still get down
And that's really true

I used to feel blue
My hopes became true
How long have I searched for someone like You
A minute goes by
Just an notion of you
I still get down
And that's really true
How long have I searched for someone like You

You, You
I love you
