The screams from my alarm scares the sleep from me
It's my sleep thief it steals dreams from me It's an invention invented with the intention of compelling

The most innocent of women to start swearing I got a word with four letters to describe all the bullshit I heard on these four days of work Jackie from HR is soon to give birth so there backed up like brick wall or black boys on a curb Or at least that's why I heard anyway outside in the smokers haunt earlier today Until light rain landing right on my b&h the water that wetted it made it hard to inhale Four minutes more life is what a smoker would say like Jackie in admin who drinks 2 litres a day I know this because a little game I like to play I waste time and gaze at the water cooler but today is my bestest day of the week so far It starts with f and ends with liquor For tonight we laugh we joke and play hard

Every day it is the same show my boss is an a hole but I'm on the pay role so I guess I'll just stay

Can I tell time is what he know wants to know I'm suppose to start at nine but its nine two 0
But it's not my fault it's the fault of Blair cause
I went to the bus stop and there weren't no bus there
So I went to the train station and guess what I saw People doing kung fu just to get through the doors Started fighting cussing and pulling hair and you know that I'm farse so I was staying there But now he's looking at me like I'm a liar but if he calls me that then I will get fired Cause even though it's true I won't except that no name calling that was in my contract
But I'm a good worker file all my files on time Don't get my files mixed up with files that's not mine

Printed on both sides are the correct codes
And if he act like he don't know th I'll make him know
But today is my bestest day of the week by far It starts with an f and ends with liquor for tonight we laugh we joke and play hard
