This portrays a striking resemblance to incidents that I've I've endured before

When you walk away
You take everything you own for granted
You take everything you own for granted

Although everything I said
Was just a picture in my head
I think we can make it

Although everything I said
Was just a picture in my head
I think we can make it

This looks exactly like something
That's happened to me before
And the letters you've written
Will never get here

When you walk away
You take everything you own for granted
And you take everything you own for granted

Although everything I said
Was just a picture in my head
I think we can make it

Although everything I said
Was just a picture in my head
I think we can make it

I'm burning up
My face is blushed
My fever is rising

Muscles weakening
And I am leaping
At opportunities to touch you
And it's becoming blaringly obvious

That I'm still walking after you
I'm still walking after you
I'm still walking after you
I'm still walking after you
I'm still walking after you
