"Good Ambition"

Visit "Good Ambition" on MotoLyrics.com

I've spent eleven months and five days loving you

And all these times I've spent forgiving you

I don't want to be hurt

I don't want to be hurt

I don't want to be hurt

Not any more

I'm a man with a good ambition

And I will never let you drag me down

You better go home and leave me alone

I'm a man with a good ambition

And I will never let you drag me down

So baby go home

And leave me alone

I've got a good, good, good ambition

Tell you it's a good, good, good ambition
