On a blank piece of paper in my hand writing letters of a word that i don't understand oh-oh we're the rock n roll brothers i'm a rough diamond i'm a burning flame i hide behind the x's in my middle name oh-oh in the rock n roll gutter

My beauty makes me me blind i'm unique, i'm one of a kind and you run crying home to your mother

/Chorus/
We're living undercover in a silent world of rubber i discover oh-oh-oh-ohhh
i am not like you

and we pretend to like eachother not the others oh-oh-oh-ohhh i'm way out of the blue..

I'm small town clown with a glowing tan i'm a bad ass bad boy in a cock'n'roll band oh-oh

If you dont know what you're doing then it's probably art
"i love you to the end" "im a shooting star" oh-oh
in the rock n roll gutter

[don't you know who i think i am b*tch? i get on stage whenever i f*cking want get in your g-strings mother f*cker and i'll kick your b*tchy little ass, punk!]

/Chorus/
We're living undercover

i am not like you

and we pretend to like eachother
not the others oh-oh-oh-ohhh
i'm way out of the blue..

SOLO

/Chorus/
We're living undercover
i am not like you

and we pretend to like eachother

anything goes, anything but you i am everything but true oh-oh-oh Ohhhhhhhhhhhh
