Somewhere, Your face in the dark
Reminds of the time, I missed you there all tight
Where heros set to fight
Don't stand there in the rain
Reminds me by the way, I left you there all time
Come forget those blind

Is this the right time, it must be my time
I think the right time for me, aahoahaa
Is this the right time, it must be my time
I know the right time for me, aahoahaa

My name, lightshine in your eyes
Can chang my backdome wide
I guessed you there all tight, for always in my heart
Lovesands on the storm, when you were by my side
Don't rag me now just wait, please stay here tonight

Is this the right time, it must be my time
I think the right time for me, aahoahaa
Is this the right time, it must be my time
I know the right time for me, aahoahaa

Is this the right time, it must be my time
I think the right time for me, aahoahaa
Is this the right time, it must be my time
I know the right time for me, aahoahaa

Is this the right time, it must be my time
Seconds of your time for me, aahoahaa
