-Verse 1-

Dungeon Master calls my name - I call you to play the game

Dungeon Master sets the stage - A ravaged land and an evil mage

Trade your doubt for a sharp blade or go back to the fields!

What is our quarry? What is our plan? - Defeat the dark horde in the Northern Lands

Can we succeed in your demands? - Just follow me with sword in hand

-Chorus-

Dungeon Master X2

-Verse 2-

Your quest begins, cleanse the dragon's lair - Skin the beast. Take all that is there!

A captured scroll will lend a clue - On to the castle, run the villain through

Let your fear guard you, you must never give in!

His numerous warriors will hold you back - I'll rally the peasants & lead the attack

The day will be bloody, but we must prevail - Widows and children will remember your tale

-Chorus-

Dungeon Master X4

-Bridge-

Dungeon Master, will I give in to sin? - I will do my best to lure you in

Why hath God laid this burden on me? - Is this not God's answer to your mortal plea?

-Solo-

-Verse 3-

The gates are broken, let our forces advance - A courtyard ambush may foil your plans

Make a bridge of the corpses, do not relent - A warrior's code allows no lament

The heart of darkness may still destroy you!
A sorcerer lies in wait, his power great - My brethren have fallen, consumed by this hate
I will avenge my brothers, run this villain through - You may now rest easy for your sword strikes true

Flee now warrior and live another day - I'll fight the good fight and live the warrior's way
But the warrior's life, it knows no rest - Then I'll fight by the sword until I die by the sword!

-Chorus-
Dungeon Master X8
