Verse 1-

My legacy is stated by the stature of my sword
It's always at the ready and well it serves its lord
When aroused to combat then the wise shall know:
Beware!
My strength is great, my blade is long, will run deeper if you care

-Chorus-

Prepared for combat, an instinctual need
My blade at the ready, hand on the sheath
When I attack I am not alone
A million stand behind me. Lads, we'll soon be going home
Sergeant-At-Arms

-Verse 2-

My longbow is a fearsome thing, never shall it miss its mark
Surely you'll remember the day I go hunting in the dark
My specialty is headshots, now, so open up your eyes
For the delivery as I let my messenger fly

-Chorus-

-Bridge-

My sword guides my way. You won't run away
You'll go down and be run aground
And my sword's tip in you shall dip
You're a trembling mass, seen your maker at last

-Verse 3-

Ready yourself, sly predator, for I liken you to prey
My halberd boast a mighty range
It's cleaver-like swing attack and massive iron head
May split thee in two and leave thee asking how deep the blade is fed

-Chorus-
