Aren't you sweet?
I love you too
Anything you need
Just do what you do
There's no one like you
Far between
And oh so few

Say that you'll stay
Several hours
Several days
You light up a room
And when you leave
It's always too soon

Why not have it all?
You've every right to take what's not tied down
You've
It's greener ... take a cake
And choke your winnings down
Before I steal your crown

You should open a zoo
Charge us a dollar to come gaze at you
Your tricks are peek-a-boo
You'd have them lined up two-by-two

I pledge allegiance to
The wrench to each and everyone's screw
Take a walk in my shoes
And tell the world how you feel about you

CHORUS

So choke your winnings down
You'd better choke your winnings down
Before I steal your crown
